IIM Jammu to launch Winter School from Jan 10

JAMMU TAWI, DEC 10 After the successful introduction and overwhelming response to Summer School 2021, Indian Institute of Management Jammu (IIM Jammu) will be launching its first-ever Online Winter School for 10th, 11th, and 12th-grade students. The idea of the Winter School was initiated by Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director-IIM Jammu, with the vision of engaging young students positively, expanding students' knowledge across various disciplines and helping them explore new career options. This one-week program will commence from January 10th, 2022 and continue until January 14th, 2022. With a broad aim of making a social impact and a significant contribution to society, IIM Jammu chose to involve young students in activities that will expose them to excellent education and constructive learning. The program consists of five modules, having two sessions in each module. The first module focuses on developing students' thinking abilities and informing them of the value of reading as a habit. The second module gives them an overview of emerging career options and new start-ups, focusing on the Integrated Program as a career option and its benefits to the students. The third module aims to provide knowledge on financing and data management skills. The fourth and fifth modules aim to build students' emotional intelligence and give them the importance of building social networks. Thus, the program will help the students cope with the demand of student life and prepare them for the future. With this being a matter of concern, IIM Jammu strives to create a holistic learning environment for young students through this Online Winter School program. The aim is to help them garner skills apart from their regular academic curriculum, setting them into their career paths with the right spirit and awareness.
